Plenty Of Time

This was the tenth grade: the first all-school assembly . . . Standing alone in the front hall and realizing what a big place East was . . . Getting the first report cards and wondering how you got a "3" instead of the "2" you were expecting . . . And, for the first time, staying out on a date a little later than you usually did.

It's Later Than You Think

By the time you reached eleventh grade, you had more or less settled down to the routine of things. You became a full-fledged, Lee-Township-against-the-world sports fan; you started eating lunch in the cafeteria. You came late for class and tried to appear unconcerned about it; and you took study hall and tried not to fall asleep during the last half-hour of the period.

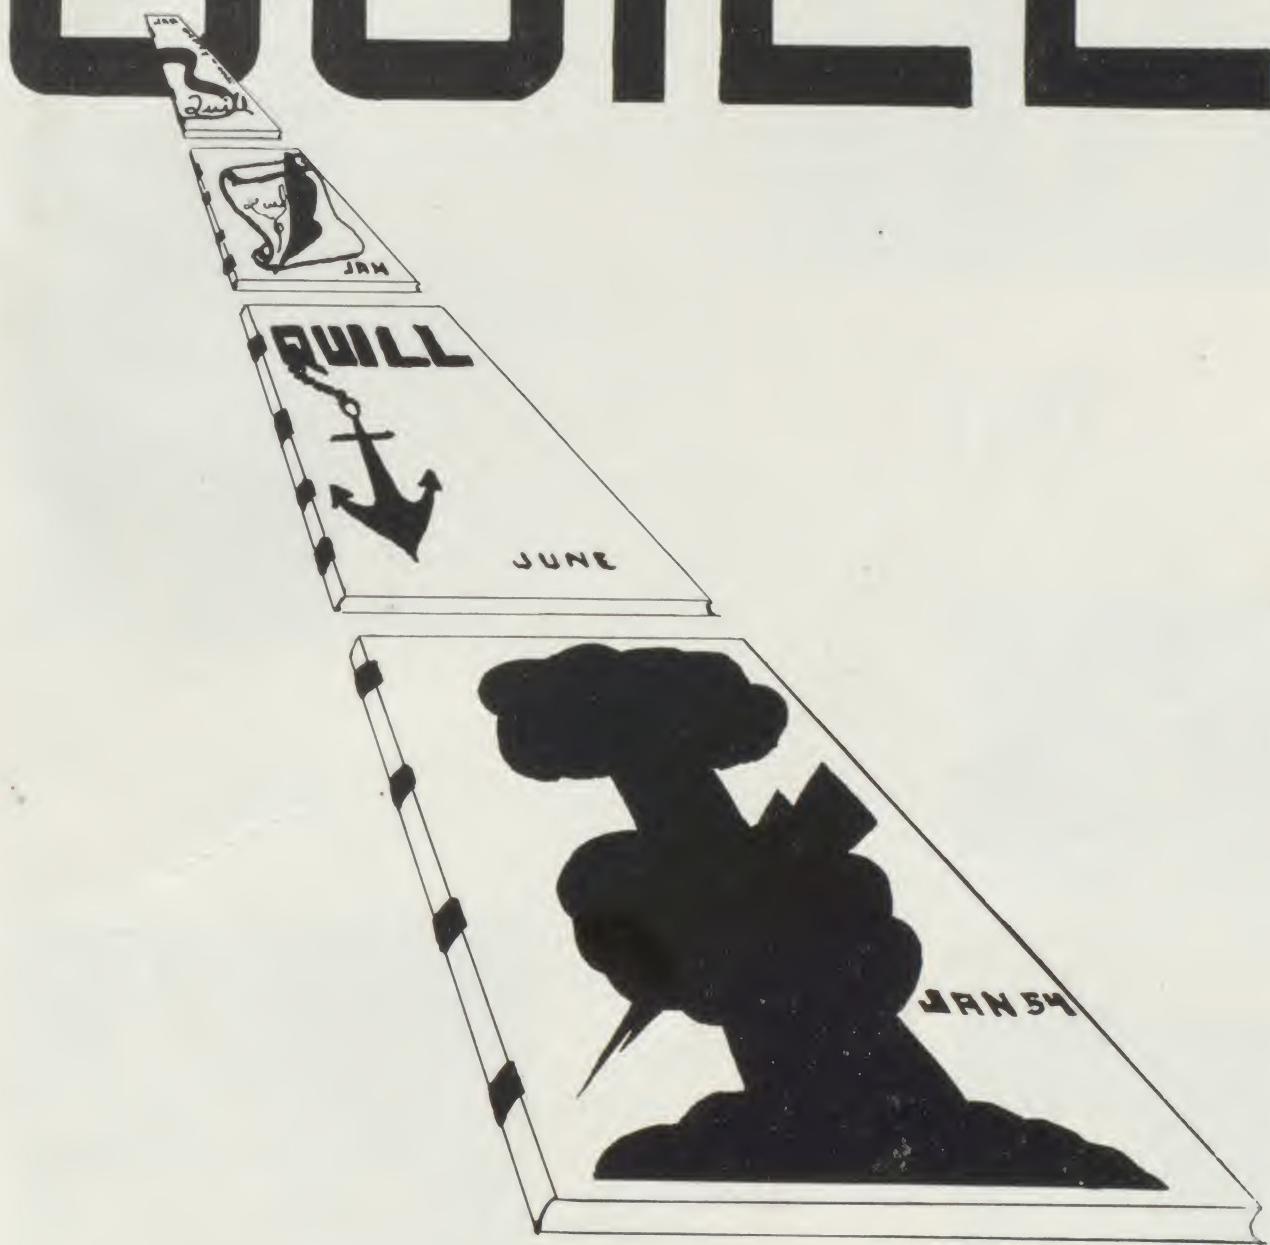

Gone!

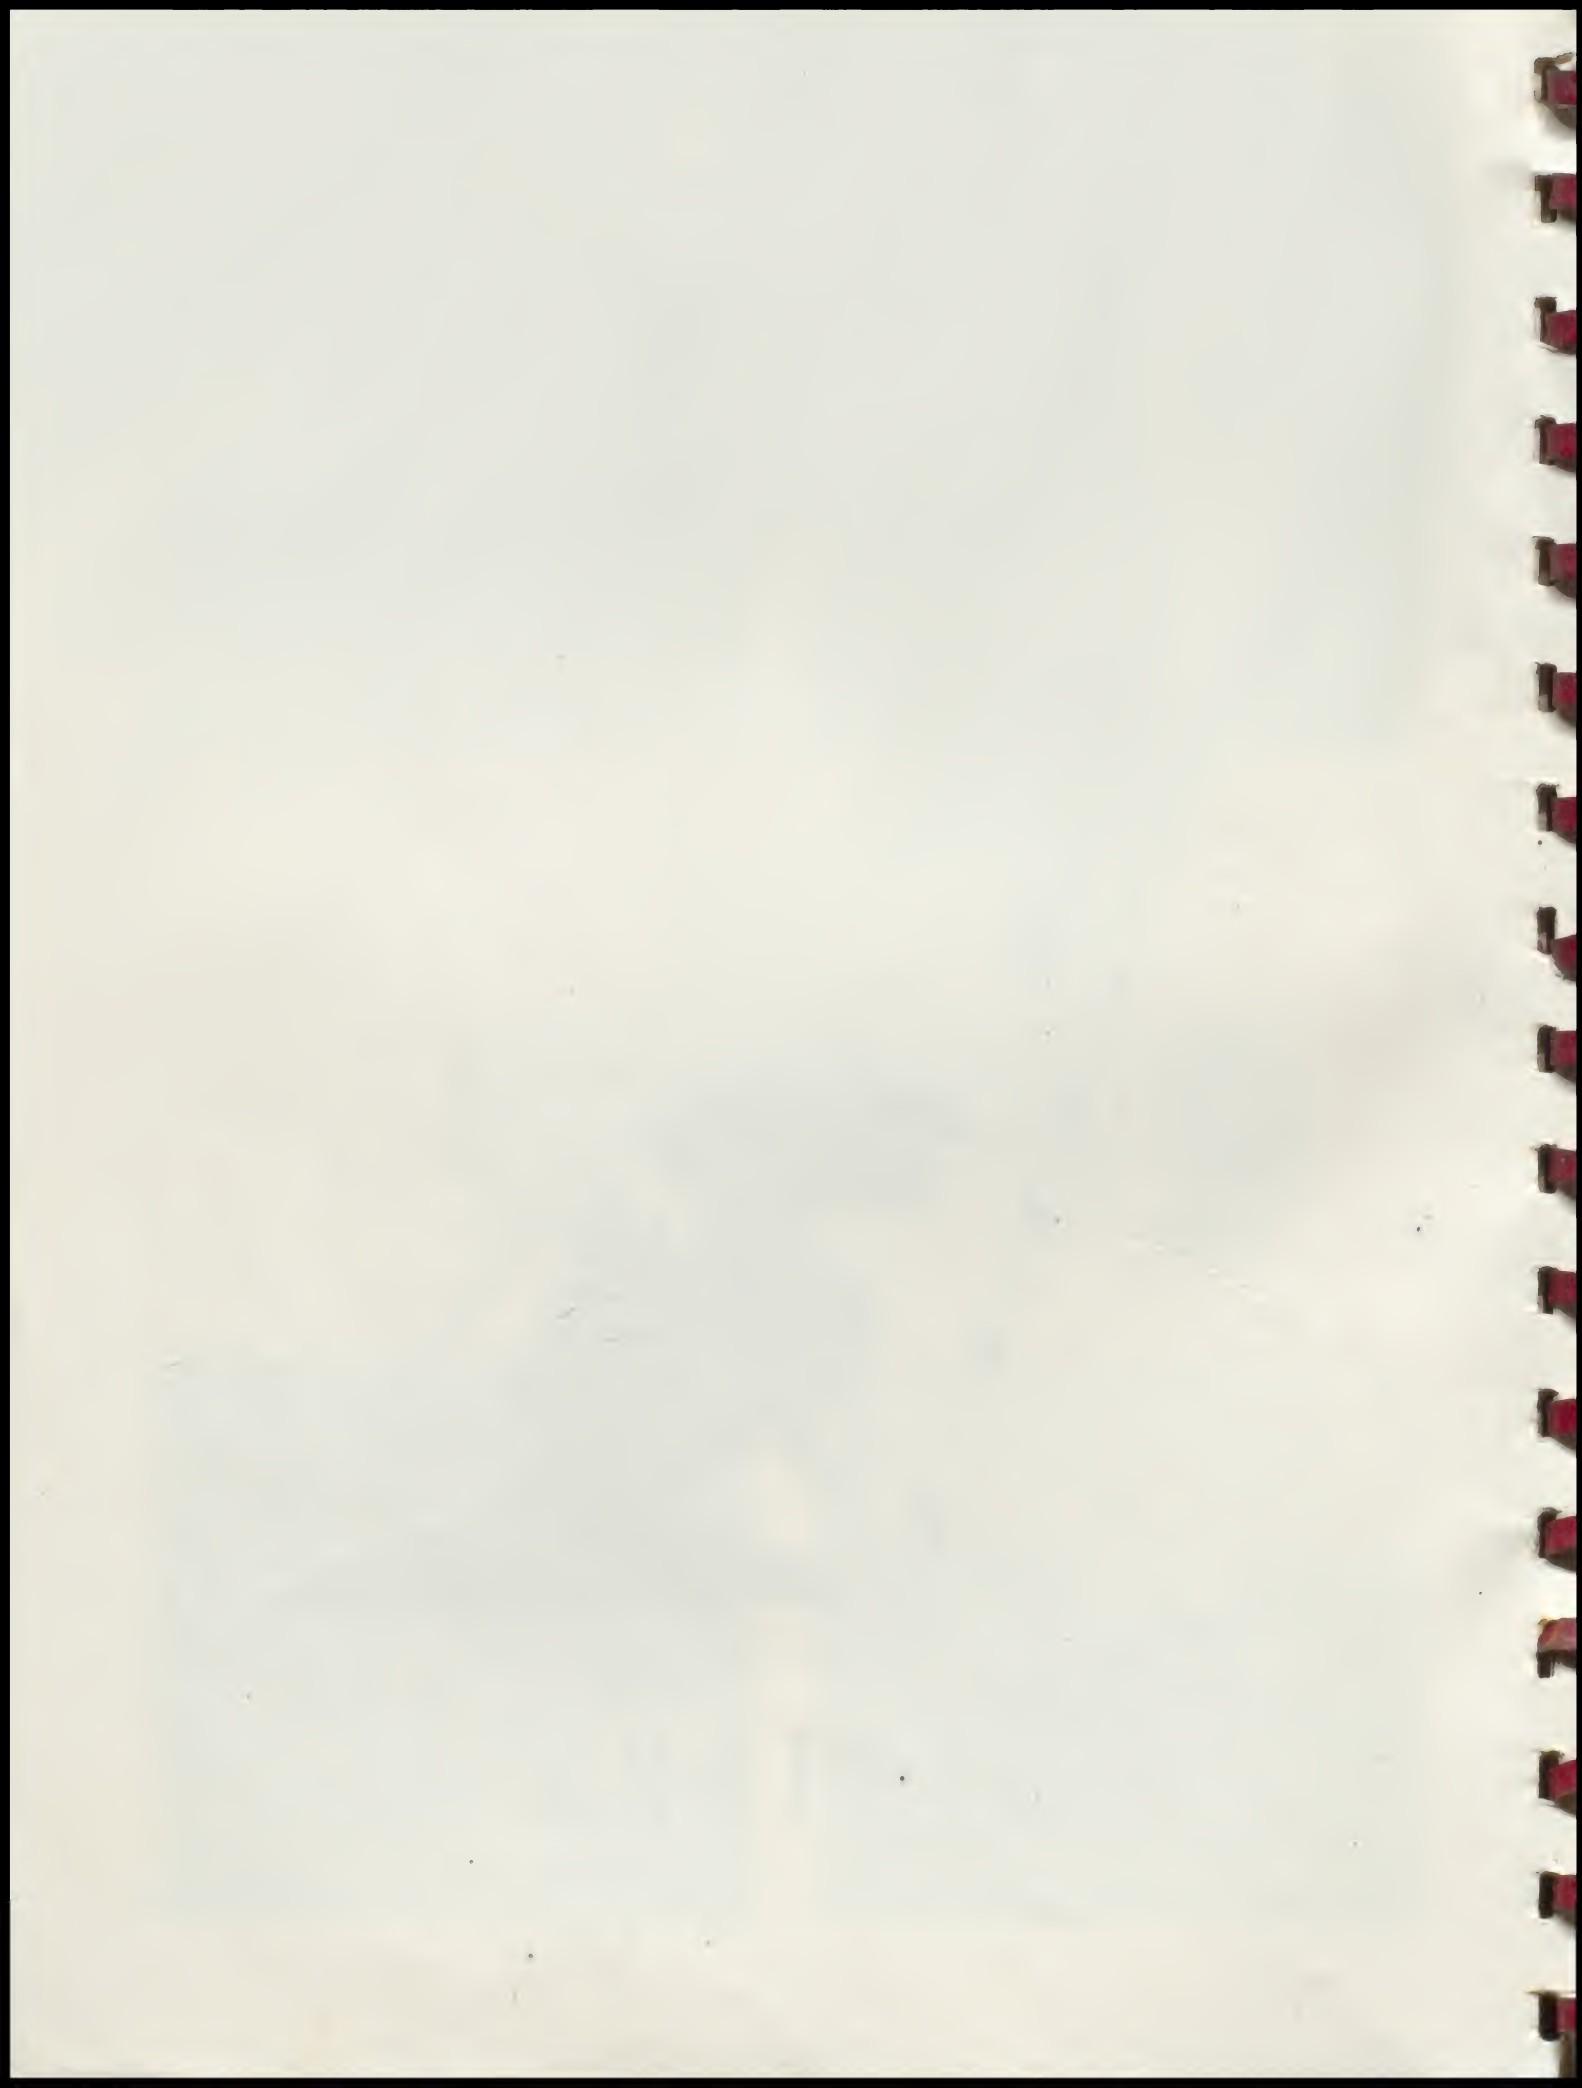

In twelfth grade you managed to get a small part in the school play, got around to taking mechanical drawing, squeezed on to the Quill staff and found out that putting together an annual isn't all it's cracked up to be. You also watched construction of the gymnasium addition, and began to wish, whether you said so or not, that you could start all over again.

Big Ben

There's not a student among us who could get along without teachers. Aside from their regular job of pounding knowledge into thick skulls in an effort to prepare the students for life and work, they provide companionship and guidance. Many of them sponsor clubs and other extracurricular activities. All are ready and willing to participate in school activities and have been largely responsible for East's many achievements. Many have been here for a long time, while others are newcomers to East.

Row 2: Maurice Bottom, Edward Burse, Herman Clemens.

Baby Ben

The Drake cadet teachers who spend part of each day here at East gaining actual classroom experience, add many new and valuable ideas to the classes. Under the leadership of our faculty they practice the course they plan to teach after they graduate.

The student teachers are chosen each year from Mr. Gregory's senior history classes on the basis of good scholastic and character records. Their duty is to supervise a class during the absence of a teacher. This experience proves to be of great value to them.

KATHERINE GRAHAM

If an unsuspecting observer would look in on room sixteen during fourth hour he might, at first glance, get the impression of an unorganized group creating nothing. Actually if our friend would take the time to really find out what was going on he would find twenty-one students busily planning and assembling the June, 1954 Quill. To be eligible for the Quill Staff a student must be recommended by the English department and write a winning essay. Mary Rasmussen and Katherine Graham have served as co-editors for this edition.

SCROLL EDITOR
KIRK SMITH

The Scroll brings highlights of the news to its readers. This paper is sent out once every two weeks to students, alumni, and friends. Under the editorship of Kirk Smith, the Scroll specializes in putting into print each student's name at least once during the semester. Students who have taken journalism for two semesters are eligible for the Scroll Staff. The headquarters of this journalistic group is in room 16. Mr. Stratton, the director, helps make our school paper the best ever.

Booster Club

Led by the cheerleaders, Booster Club forms the nucleus of East High's cheering section. The club is open to anyone who wants to come to the meetings, where new cheers are practiced and last - minute announcements are made.

Meeting every Thursday morning to see an interesting film subject, the Spectators Club combines education with recreation. The members receive the movie schedule ahead of time in order that they may choose which showing they wish to attend.

Spectators Club

Future Nurses Club

The ambition of each member of this club is to write R.N. after her name. They discuss both the advantages and disadvantages of nursing. Under the leadership of Mrs. Clark and guest speakers, the girls learn more about the nursing profession.

Future Teachers Club

To acquaint students with the opportunities that the teaching profession offers, the school organized the Future Teachers Club. To maintain a membership one must earn ten points through work with people or a study of the teaching profession.

FUTURE TEACHERS CLUB—Row 1: Cahow, Harmon, Burris, McGaffee, Severeid, Wooderson, Livengood, Treadway; Row 2: Peters, Knudsen, Collins, Brinkman, Balzer, Harper, Carter, Mattson, Stoddard; Row 3: Watson, Olson, Doop, McCartney, Nelson, Treadway, Downey, Miss Elwood.

SPANISH CLUB

Every two weeks, fifty students from the Spanish classes get together for an hour of fun under the direction of Miss Frances Brewer. The officers chosen to lead the club this year are Carolyn Graham, President; Vincent Bejarno, Vice-President; Marilyn Morris, Secretary; Gloria Thomas, Treasurer.

Tempus Fugit

LATIN CLUB

Time flies after 3:30 when the Sodalitas Romana of East High meets in room 111 every first and third Wednesdays of the month. The highlight of the year is the annual banquet and mock wedding carried on in true Roman fashion. The club is supervised by Miss Winifred Cummings.

Y Time Is Your Time

The Hi-Y boys meet each Wednesday morning at 8 in Room 111. Under the leadership of Advisor "Gus" Rump and President Bobb Galpin, the club is one of the largest in the school. Besides having some very outstanding guest speakers, they had a joint meeting with the girls of the Y-Teens, which proved a success.

The East High Y-Teens, a high school branch of the Y.W.C.A., have sponsored a number of local programs including the Hi-Y, Y-Teen talent show. Each semester they participate in one universal Y-Teen project. They work with other Des Moines groups and hold many activities.

Science Club

A mixed club is held in Room 115 under the supervision of Mr. Storer. It is the Science Club. Officers for this semester are Jack Hartung, President; Jim Fredrickson, Vice-President; Bette Berard, Secretary and Treasurer. Dealing with subjects of a scientific nature, the members have an interesting time.

Sketch Club

Under the leadership of Mr. Hiatt, Sketch Club meets after school to engage in a fascinating hobby. The club is open to all students who are interested in drawing, and especially those not having the chance to include art in their regular studies.

PHILOMATHIAN CLUB—Row 1: Barry, Howser, Andrews, Wickersheim, Richards, Lee, McNally;
Row 2: Lee, White, Rizer, Nace, Hansen, Carr; Row 3: Barry, Schoonover, Tuers, Neely, Aspengren, Mrs. Parker.

Philo

Having started with only a few members last fall, Philo, East's oldest girls' club, has made a significant growth this year. Beginning as a literary society, the club has become a comfortable, informal social group of girls from all grades. Prominent among its activities is an Eastertime hat-making session.

SENIOR DEBS

SENIOR DEBS AND ZETA

Many girls enjoy the social hour that the girls' clubs offer. Both the Zeta and Senior Deb clubs meet every other Wednesday night. Under the leadership of their Presidents, Shirley Spiker and Marilyn Berry, the clubs enjoy speakers on hair styling, colleges, and other interesting subjects.

MODERN MISS

Another one of the social clubs for girls here at East is the Modern Miss Club. It meets every other Wednesday night under the direction of Miss Whitford. The girls often invite outside speakers. They also have an enjoyable social hour during which club members serve refreshments.

Girls' and Boys' Glee Clubs

Passing Room 219 during second or third period, you may hear a chord or a classical song by the glee clubs. Directed by Miss Sigrid Greenhill, they learn to read music, improve tone quality, and develop talent. If they have special talent, they get special coaching. They lend their talents for such programs as the Spring Music Festival.

Jim McClelland, Rodney Anderson, Charles Chastain, Ronnie Paterson.

Quartet and Mixed Group

Under the direction of Miss Sigrid Greenhill, the Quartet and Mixed Group provide delightful entertainment for their school as well as for outside audiences. Among other appearances they performed during the Spring Festival of Music.

Choir

The most advanced music class in East High is the A Cappella Choir, under the direction of Miss Sigrid Greenhill.

Every student in our school remembers the beautiful picture created by the choir at the annual Nativity program. Besides doing inter-school work, the group is well-known for outside activities.

MESSENGERS—Tom Giff, Gene McPhee

Assembly Ushers

The students of Mr. Gregory's homeroom are the assembly ushers. Their duties are to show visitors to their seats and to keep our anxious students from running in the halls.

Messengers

The responsibility of taking messages to and from the school board is entrusted to our school messengers.

Wardrobe Girls

Without the help of the wardrobe girls, our assemblies would be uninteresting. These girls are responsible for getting the proper costumes for the different characters. What an untidy place the wardrobe room would be if we didn't have these girls to straighten it.

WARDROBE GIRLS—Janet Griffiths, Barbara Kooker, Sherry Lair, Beverly Adams.

Supply Girl, Joy Peters

Movie Operators And Electricians

Under the instruction of Mr. Yount, our movie operators and electricians regulate spotlights and run the movie projectors. To learn these arts one may go to Visual Aids Club.

Stagehands

The behind-the-scene boys are a real necessity to make a successful production.

The school certainly owes them a lot.

In The Nick of Time Noontime

To come skidding in just as Joy is closing the window is quite a usual occurrence. Joy Peters opens shop at 8:15 each morning.

The girls selling candy and working in the cafeteria while we are rushing to the movie or club are people who help make our school run smoothly.

ELECTRICIANS AND MOVIE OPERATORS

Library Staff

The Library Staff takes care of books in the book room and library. When teachers need textbooks they call upon these workers. They cooperate closely with Miss Carrie Larson, librarian.

Nurse's Helpers

The pretty girls, who take temperatures, take names, and patch minor cuts, are the nurse's helpers. Mrs. Clark chooses these girls, who give up their study hall to help our school.

Row 1: Atkinson, Konz, Peterson, Vergos, Weichman, Huffman, Huffmann; Row 2: Lammey, Overton, Hallen, Nass, Wilson, Thomas; Inset: Mrs. Clark.

Clerical Staff

Students who help in the office during their free time are on the clerical staff. Besides helping with the school office work, they learn the office procedure.

Row 1: Bjork, Walker, Malaney, Warren; Row 2: Roberts, Brown, Viggers, Darnall.

It Takes A Trick To Make It Tick

We really owe a lot to the custodians here at East, who work hard to keep our school clean and neat. Their cheerful smiles and friendly greetings really make a pleasant addition to the halls of East High.

The good lunches served here at East are the results of the experienced cafeteria women. These ladies also prepare banquets and other school dinners. Under the management of Mrs. Wiggenjost, the cafeteria offers a nourishing lunch for East High students.

Row 1: Grant, Sinnard, Allison, Wiggenjost; Row 2: Baughman, Stolmeier, Hicks, Hines, Barnes.

MONITORS—Row 1: Hamilton, Gilbert, Scovel, Purdy, Peterson, Buford, Stookey, Harrison, Graham, Selix, Elder, Breton, O'Brien, Lawler, Thomas, Forney, Powers, Williamson, Mornico, Bengston; Row 2: Shultz, Saville, O'Rourke, Smith, McConnell, Piper, Alfrey, Deskin, Butts, Matteson, McGaffee, Thompson, Wetzel, Mercer, Shutt, Tywater, Turnquist; Row 3: Gogerty, Houser, Matthews, Mathews, Frazier, Hartung, Prichard, Huth, Bubon, McGee, Denny, Sullivan, Hull; Row 4: Jones, Berry, Soroka, White, Wald, Thomas, Livengood, Andersen, Andrews, Fran, Baltzer, Brown, Green; Row 5: Ollis, Aldrich, Cahow, Brown, Wilson, Toole, Piper, Lussem, Salmon, Lewis, Frakes, Cisna, Neades, Larson, Sellers; Row 6: Edwards, Wagner, Newsome, Doop, Allan, Price, Young, Bauman, Brantford, Hall, Helms, Bejarno, Jones, Anderson, Hiatt, Plude, Hackley.

The students selected from the study hall as monitors keep the halls quiet and orderly during class periods.

Monitors

We should not only recognize but respect their authority. Hats off to these students who give their time to make our school orderly.

SECOND AND THIRD FLOOR MONITORS—Row 1: McNancy, Fuller, Imgrund, Thomsen, Phillips, McGriff, Hoffman, Striggle, Jones, Peacock, Liplon, Carlisle, Sandy, Scheett, Mercer, Danford; Row 2: Howe, Knauss, Perry, Sellards, Hiatt, Dorothy, McAttsian, Kohlhase, Doyle; Row 3: Jeffries, Gilbert, Harwood, Evans, Knass, Fors, Rasmussen, McConnell, Whitehead, Aspengren, Vroom, Zauer, Thompson, Long; Row 4: Mitchell, Aldridge, Golpin, Hartung, Jessen, Huth, Prichard, Hartman, Forney, Lawler, Bellinger, Johnson, McGaffee; Row 5: Bingaman, Elings, Lussem, Gabbert, Reginski, Piper, Nissen, Belluchi, Griffiths, Larson, Petersen, Cahow; Row 6: Denny, Berry, Dudley, Rose, Wilson, Lowder, Terry, Knapp, Nalevanko, Crum, Smith, Garcia, Jones; Row 7: Kinzel, Day, Smith, Goldman, Fisher, Ridgeway, Burris, Grant, Byerly, Hall, Johnson, Daniel, Thomas; Row 8: Denning, Seneca, Edwards, Prall, Biddle, Derham, Orr, Duncan, Fontanini, Jacobson, Crouch, Ekstrand.

Time In!

Basketball

This year East High's basketball team started on top and finished on top as city co-champions. The usual slack after mid-year graduation was taken up by the addition of Ron Romens, a transfer student from Ohio. This year's team was an all-star team, but only Bob Biddle placed on the Tribune's All-City Team. All of these assets formed a power which was almost unbeatable and which led to last-minute thrill games with Tech and Roosevelt. The Scarlets had a good season in Big Six competition by finishing third. This conference is by far one of the toughest in the state. With many returning lettermen, next year's team should be one of the state's best.

Second Basketball Team

"TWO POINTS"

Cage Monks

The hub of our East High athletic program is our equipment managers or cage monks. These boys keep track of sweat clothes during practice sessions and the equipment and uniforms during games.

Many times a monk must stay after school to check in equipment after long practice sessions. All of this work does not go unrewarded though, because they can earn letters. Their advisor is Mr. Gus Rump.

Standing in the background are the hard-working members of the second team. Long hours of practice and little recognition are made up in the honor and glory of the varsity squad in later seasons. These boys play about the same season as the first team and work with the same eagerness of all East High athletes. The coach is Mr. Ray McAdams.

COACH MCADAMS

Row 1: Allyn, McConnell, Richards, Rife; Row 2: Nipper, McConnell, Budrevich.

COACH SAVAGE

Baseball

The East High baseball team has finished with a very successful season by defeating the city baseball powers. Many members of the team gain extra experience by playing on American Legion teams during the summer. This year's squad was very well balanced in both the infield and the outfield. The baseball coach is Mr. Bob Savage. With the returning juniors and many promising sophomores next year's team should be one of the finest we have had.

"ROUGH TRIP"

Minutemen

The fact that East has always been a perpetual state track power is proven by our trophy cases full of track trophies. This year's team is sure to add to East's track prestige. Although they did not win all their meets, they won many events for new records and new trophies. The team receives much help and advice from their coach, Mike Augustine.

COACH AUGUSTINE

COACH GREGORY

"THE GUILLOTINE"

Wrestling

This year our East High matmen tied Lincoln for the city wrestling championship. Although the remainder of the season was not so successful, three boys went to the state wrestling tournament. These boys were Jim Newsome (who finished second) Don Derham, and Joe Packey.

Next year we can expect an exceptional season under the very capable leadership of Coach Charles Gregory.

Boys' Tennis

Although tennis is not a prominent sport we should be proud of our tennis team. The coach is Mr. Raymond Geyerth. The team has won most of its matches this season and defeated many other good teams.

"BIRDIE"

Boys' Golf

Practicing on the Grandview course under the able coaching of Mr. Minnekus Schakel, our golf team prepares for their meets. The team has had a good season and the returning players should make next year's team another fine one.

GOLF—Row 1: Ferrier, Thompson, Dowell, Ramsey; Row 2: Larson, Peterson, Cappellin, Farrer, Lettington; Insert: Coach Schakel.

ALTERNATES: Mary Lou Weisbrod, Sally Peterson, Sally Buford, Durene Schroeder.

CHEERLEADERS

Hats off to East High's first girl cheerleaders. These girls have been responsible for organizing student groups going to out-of-town basketball and football games. With the help of our boy cheerleaders, East has become the most enthusiastic cheering section in the city. Cheering for the second team we find the alternate cheerleaders who will be varsity cheerleaders next year. Their coach is Mr. Kenneth Stratton.

PERFECT FORM

Girls' Swimming

The girls' swimming team was just started in recent semesters under the direction of Mr. Scotty Russell. The group comes in the early mornings to develop their aquademic techniques.

Girls' Golf

Under the able sponsorship of Mr. Schakel, the girls' golf team has just completed another season. They practice on Monday evenings to be prepared to compete in tournaments with other schools.

Girls' Tennis

Miss Spencer has aided in instructing the girls' tennis team to a successful season this semester. The loss of lettermen will be felt a good deal next fall.

G. A. A.

To further girls' athletic interests at East we have an organized Girls' Athletic Association, advised by Miss Spencer. These girls develop their bodies while perfecting their skills in sports.

GIRLS' TENNIS TEAM—Row 1: Alfreda Moore, Marilyn Murray, Bing Kinney, Norma Wetzel; Row 2: Marietta Reeves, Judy Dolinsek, Sharon Whitehead, Irene Harper, Judy Ryun.

SMASH!
"WHERE'D IT GO?"

Proposed Addition

Everyone at East is looking forward to the day when our modern gymnasium will become a reality. This will enlarge the swimming facilities and will hold a gymnasium with a seating capacity of 3600.

Getting Under Way

Every day the roar of machinery is heard from the construction work. These sounds foretell the new addition which when completed will hold physical education facilities, industrial arts classrooms, and a student center.

Boys' Swimming

Even though the swimming team has improper practice facilities, they go into their meets with the good old East High spirit. When the new pool is completed we can expect many exciting swimming meets.

Quill Ad Club

Because subscriptions alone cannot pay for a large yearbook, the Quill must be supported by our advertisers. These ads must be solicited by the super-salesmen of Mr. Friestad's classes. The ads are of various sizes and costs. Those who sell $25 and $75 worth of ads are honored by receiving membership in ad clubs. We should all be grateful to these hard-working salesmen who make the Quill a low-priced, high-quality book.
